Dedication

We, the Class of 1978, recognize as this year's dedication recipient, a man who has given of himself both in and out of the classroom. This outstanding member of the Woburn High School faculty has encouraged us toward our goals by his sincere concern for us, and by his enthusiastic support of our class.

This individual has presented himself as firm, fair, and personable. There has always been an atmosphere of friendliness and understanding in his classroom. He has successfully taught us to recognize and deal with the social concerns of our generation. Beyond this, he has become acquainted with many members of the entire student body. He has consistently added much to our extra-curricular activities as a former coach of football and tennis, and with his loyal support to all our social events.

In the future, as we relive our high school days, we will remember you as a trusting friend and generous human being. For the understanding you have shown for us, we offer this symbol of our appreciation to you . . .

Superintendent's Message

Congratulations to the Class of 1978.

The challenge of the future in our democratic society demands the fullest effort of each of us as a participant and citizen, so that we preserve those fundamental values which make us a country of great spirit, and to effect those changes which make us a nation of understanding and leadership.

Good luck to each of you as you continue your learning and formal education.

Sincerely,

Yearbook Message

To Members of the Class of 1978:

The preparation, editing, and presentation of this yearbook of the Class of 1978 has been a monumental task completed with dedication by a superior staff of students and advisers.

In one sense a yearbook is merely a pictorial record of the senior year in high school. In a more significant sense it is a permanent memorial of the associations, activities, and classmates who have given flesh to the spirit that is Woburn Senior High School.

On the eve of Graduation in 1978, it is fitting that one pause to reflect on those associations of our high school days, since never again will the Class of '78 meet as a whole. It is a time of deep sentiment.

It is a time to be happy and a time to be sad in reviewing our educational gains during the past three years; happy that we had taken some of the benefits of our high school opportunities — sad that we had not taken more.

To each member of this fine class is extended a personal good wish for health, happiness, and success in reaching the goals of a journey of a lifetime.

We'll Help You Tackle the World.

With high school days almost behind you, the Army can help you take on the rest of the world.

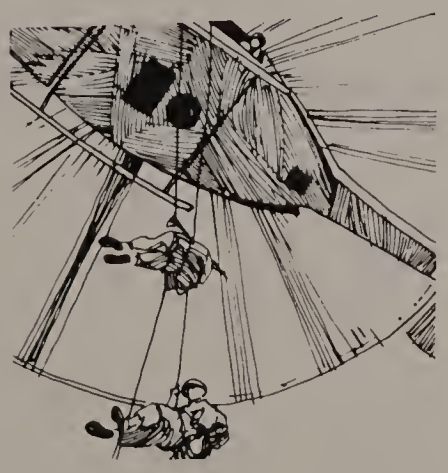

If you qualify, we offer you training in hundreds of different skills: Law Enforcement. Medicine. Food Service. Communications. Many more.

Educational benefits in today's Army give you many chances to move up in the world, too. You can start a college program when you enter the Army. And you can save money from your Army pay and have that money matched $2 for $1 for future education under the Veterans' Educational Assistance Program.

You'll make good money, plus food, housing, medical and dental care, plus 30 days paid vacation each year.

The world is ready when you are.

Tackle it with the United States Army.

THE WOBURN JAYCEES

We're an organization of young men and women between the ages of 18 and 35. We're involved with projects of value to the community. For example, we ran the Junior Olympics, organized foliage trips for the elderly and candidates' nights during election times. We're concerned with the condition of Woburn's parks and have run several park improvement projects.

But more than that! We give young people a chance to do something not only for their community, but for themselves. You'll have a chance to develop leadership skills and learn how to make your ideas become realities.

If you're interested in finding out more about us, write a short note to the Woburn Jaycees, P.O. Box 109, Woburn, Ma. 01801. We hope to see you around!
